

MISSION:

Victim/Witness Services for Coconino County is a community-oriented, 501(c)(3) non-profit organization that provides crisis intervention, victim assistance, witness advocacy, crime prevention education and victim compensation to assist in alleviating emotional, physical and financial needs of victims while promoting the constitutional rights of victims.

VISION:

We envision Victim/Witness Services for Coconino County as a leader in providing responsive, relevant, high-quality advocacy for victims of crime in Coconino County.

VICTIM/WITNESS SERVICES

Victim Advocate Volunteer Program (Crisis Intervention)

- 24/7 immediate crisis intervention and emergency services.

Victim and Witness Advocacy Program

- Advocates provide criminal justice advocacy to help victims and witnesses recover from the trauma of crime and assist them through the justice system.

Crime Victim Compensation Program

- Funds are available to help victims with medical bills, funeral expenses, mental health counseling, and wage loss.

Call to Protect Program

- Cell phones available for victims of domestic violence to immediately report threats to their safety.

Outreach Program

- Advocates travel county-wide to ensure availability of direct services to victims outside of Flagstaff.

Community Education and Public Awareness

- Provide relevant crime intervention and prevention information and/or training to the public and private sectors.

Pets, Too!

- Temporary boarding for pets of domestic violence victims entering shelter.

“ The advocate who helped me was
NEUTRAL IN A TIME OF TRAUMA AND FEAR
when my friends and family only wanted payback and could not relate.
My payback is that I AM A SURVIVOR. ”
— J.B.L.
